Elevate! Your Business to the Next Level

The National Association of Realtors says if you are looking to increase your performance and join the elite 10% of top agents, then you need to ask yourself these seven questions:

1. Do you know your numbers for the past three years?
2. Do you have a concise business plan with measurable results?
3. Are you organized and have strong time management skills?
4. Do you know what the biggest factor is for raising your production and how to obtain it if you do not have it?
5. Do you know how to leverage your strengths to immediately increase your production?
6. Do you have systems in place for all areas of your business? Do you effectively use those systems?
7. Do you know your areas of weakness/challenge(s) and how to overcome them?

*If you answered "NO" to three or more of the above, You are ready for a Results-Driven Real Estate Coach & Consultant.

FACT: A true real estate coach should NEVER cost you money, they should empower you to MAKE MORE MONEY and increase your productivity, strategies & systems.

FACT: All top professionals have someone they work with to increase their sales performance.

Why Coaching & Consulting?

What is Elevate! Coaching?

Coaching for Real Estate Professionals has been via phone calls and webcam chats (rarely) until Elevate! Because people learn and absorb information and counseling in different ways, Elevate! delivers an in-person weekly coaching experience at your office or work location. Don't worry if you need more help or advice after the session, your Elevate! coach is available via call/text/email throughout the week. Sessions run an hour to an hour and a half in order to really maximize your investment. Your Elevate! coach has been where you are and has listed and sold homes and managed hundreds of agents. There are no "scripts" when coaching/consulting you – only an individualized experience from an experienced TOP Producer, Leader, Manager & Trainer/Coach.

"An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest" —Ben Franklin

Just for Business Owners & Managers

Your Elevate! Consultant has managed for three national real estate companies and has recruited hundreds of sales professionals in offices exceeding all established goals for maximum and awarded results! Having been a top producer as well as top leader, your Elevate! Consultant is unique because she understands both the broker/owner perspective as well as the agent needs and challenges.

Experience Elevate!

Elevate! Action Coaching for Real Estate Professionals is unlike any coaching, training or consulting programs available. Working in-person rather than via a web call or phone call allows for a much richer coaching experience. The accountability increases and results are almost guaranteed to produce higher results in a face-to-face setting. Additional access to the Elevate! coach throughout the week is unheard of in the coaching platforms that are available to real estate professionals today.
